

Shelf life Statement

We hereby certify that all products that SILVALAC, S.A. produces, maintains the mechanical properties and a stable behaviour, provided that the ambient temperature of storage does not exceeding the 45°C or not reach below -15°C. It is also necessary that these products are stored protected from water and direct sunlight.

With such storage the effective durability of the product will be 24 months.

Except the products with corona treatment; in these cases, the products must be used within nine months after the date of manufacture.

